Japan and Italy after they had just met.
That's the reason's Japan polite speech is a little awkward uld think Japan and Italy wouldn't have interacted that much during the war ally it seems there was a great deal of cultural exchange of art and literature ccurring between both countries regardless of the battles going on

Afterwards Japan-kun was sent a lot of Italian books from Italy and his boss Incidentally some of these books survived the fires and still exist today!

OH, THAT'S VERY KIND OF YOU TO SAY
WOW! YOUR ART STYLE IS SO UNUSUAL AND COOL I LOVE IT SHOCK!

SLINK SLINK
